

SORGHUM AS A RESPONSE TO CLIMATE CHANGE ?

12 october at restaurant le Cheval noir à Niederroedern (67) and 13 october at restaurant Le Coquelicot à Burnhaupt-le-haut (68)

Programm :

9:30 a.m. Greetings

10:00 a.m. "The cultivation of fodder sorghum from sowing to harvest" Benjamin Collin (Arvalis)

11:00 a.m. "Fodder sorghum from fodder conservation to feed ration design" Dr. Georg Terler (HBLFA Raumberg-Gumpenstein)

Please notice that the on-site event will be held in French only!

For lunch you are invited by the Alsace Chamber of Agriculture (Chambre d'agriculture Alsace).

Afternoon: Visit of sorghum fields EARL Lang (67)

Visit of a farm utilizing sorghum Gaec de Wittelsheim (68)

Organisational information: The event can also be attended online, in German and French!
Participation at the on-site event is only possible with proof of compliance with Covid-regulations (vaccinated, recovered or tested).

Please register obligatorily with Sophie Mavel by mail (sophie.mavel@alsace.chambagri.fr) or by phone (+33 3 88 99 38 40)